

This is a copy of an email sent from Anne Katz from the Wisconsin Assembly for Local Arts to Michelle St. Claire of Dane County Planning and Development on December 2nd, 2003. Its contents pertain to a presentation that was given at the December 10th, 2003, joint meeting of the Agricultural, Cultural, and Natural Resources (ANCR) Work Group and the Housing and Economic Development Work Group.

All blue underlined text can be clicked to get to the related document.

Michelle -- here is information on the arts and economic development.

I've attached two handouts, and my bio:

- Overview
- Making a Case for the Arts

If you are sending out info via email, here are some good links to arts/economic development information:

Information on the arts and the creative community, from regional and national sources
<http://wisconsinarts.org/progserv/madisonsummit.htm#creativecommunity>

"Small Town, Big on Art-- Paducah, KY and Its Artist Relocation Program"
<http://www.artcalendar.com/Paducaharticle.htm>

Richard Florida, "The Rise of the Creative Class" www.creativeclass.org

Tacoma Reinvents with Culture
Sustainable Industries Journal Northwest, July 18, 2003
<http://www.ci.tacoma.wa.us/econdev/News/20030718-SIJ.htm>

Please let me know if you have any questions about any of this.

See you next week -- thanks.
Anne Katz