PAYMENT OF COURT ORDERED OBLIGATIONS

Payment Options:

- Pay the full amount no later than the due date.
- Pay half of the amount due no later than the due date and request a 30-day extension to pay the other half.
NOTE: A 30-day extension is not automatic – you must request the extension in writing or in person.
- If you owe $200 or more you may be eligible for a deferred payment agreement through the Clerk of Court's Office provided you have a source of income. Applications for deferred payment agreements must be submitted within ten (10) days of conviction to the court collections officer. Late applications may require a down payment. A $15 fee is charged to set up and monitor a deferred payment agreement. The fee is required to be paid at the time the agreement is established.

Collection Methods If Amount Due Is Not Paid In Full By Due Date:

- Up to a 2-year suspension of your driving privilege will be ordered for failure to pay. The suspension is not in lieu of payment.
A citation for driving with a suspended license is $185.50 in addition to 3 demerit points.
A $50 reinstatement fee is charged by the Division of Motor Vehicles to reinstate a suspended license after failure to pay.
- Referral of the past due amount will be made to a collection agency which can negatively affect a person's credit rating.
- A civil judgment will be entered for the past due amount which affects a person's ability to obtain a loan. A $5 satisfaction fee is required to satisfy a civil judgment after the judgment amount is paid in full.
- Civil judgments accrue 12% interest annually from the date of judgment.
- Unpaid court obligations are certified with the State of Wisconsin Department of Revenue for tax interception.
- An income assignment may be ordered which may cost you an additional $3 per paycheck if your employer is ordered to withhold your earnings in payment of the fine/forfeiture.
- An Order to Show Cause Hearing may be scheduled by the court.
