

Legibility Requirement

Please see the Wisconsin State Statutes regarding document legibility:
<http://www.legis.state.wi.us/statutes/Stat0059.pdf>

The above reference also outlines those documents/instruments that are exempt from this requirement.

In the case of maps/drawings which have been reduced down to letter or legal sized pages and the labels and written text is so small that it is illegible, the following sample items may be printed on adhesive labels or cut and taped to the map and/or illustration being presented for recording:
